

1 Top: King Magnus Eriksson touring his realm. The last vestiges of serfdom were abolished by royal edict in Skara 1335.

2 Center: Bishop Brynolf Algotsson of Skara (approx 1240-1317).

3 Center: Two mendicant friars, a Franciscan and a Dominican, from the two friaries in Skara.

4 Top: St. Birgitta receiving a vision in 1349 while visiting the tomb of St. Brynolf. The vision is symbolized by rays of heavenly light from above.

5 Right: Medieval deacons on the way to the university city of Paris, represented by Notre Dame. The deacons had their own residence in campus.

6 At the top: A schoolhouse from the 1600's, the cathedral and the animal hospital set up by Peter Hernqvist in 1775.

9 Center: The most impressive person on the fountain, Bishop Jesper Svedberg (1653-1735).

10 Bottom left: The great fire of Skara in 1719.

11 Center: Educator Sven Hof (1703-1786) with a group of students.

12 Top right: A train symbolizes Skara as a narrow gauge railway junction.

13 Left: The wellknown schoolmaster and poet Gunnar Wennerberg (1817-1901)

14 Bottom left: The poet Johan Henrik Kellgren (1751-1795) depicted as a scholar. The muse playing her lyre represents Kellgren's poem The New Creation.

15 Top left: Ragnvald jarl, who was influential in converting Västergötland to Christianity, is pictured on horseback.

16 Center: Bishop Egiho of Lund sets fire to Västergötlands pagan temple around 1060.

17 Left: Groups of missionaries entering from both directions symbolize the Christian influence exerted by Germany and England.

18 Center: An apostle is holding a crucifix and is preaching to a crowd which includes a fisherman and a pagan sacrificial priest.

THE WELL OF CHRONICLE. The millennial history of Skara depicted in three parallel strips. A sculpture by Nils Sjögren, erected in the town square in 1939.

THE WELL OF CHRONICLE

Discover more!

Other common artworks in Skara

1. Peter Hernqvist, 2008 - Martin Hansson
2. Girl with Book, 1963 - Britta Nehrman
3. Scholar with Larch, 1988 - Wanja "Nones" Håkansson
4. The Liberty Stone, 1985 - Bertil Y Svensson, "Byson"
5. The Tree of Knowledge, 1978 - Gösta Pettersson
6. Frater Argenteus, 1974 - Erik Sand
7. The Burg of Skara, 1984 - Walter Bengtsson
8. The Accordion Player, 1990 - Wanja "Nones" Håkansson
9. Gunnar Wennerberg memorial, 2003 - Lenny Clarhäll
10. Ylva and Ulf, 2002 - Lenny Clarhäll
11. The Maze, 1994 - Marie Beckman
12. They Cultivated the Soil, 1976 - Jalmar Lindgren
13. Transmitter and Receiver, 1975 - Roland Andersson
14. Octo Puallae (School Choir), 1992- Wanja "Nones" Håkansson
(Access during school hours only)
15. Terrace of Skara, 2002 - Wanja "Nones" Håkansson

Skara Tourist Office. Phone: (0)511-325 80

